

JOB POSTING

Assistant Professor of Operations Management & Quantitative Methods (August 2010)

Coggin College of Business at the University of North Florida

The Coggin College of Business at the University of North Florida is pleased to announce a search for the tenure-track position of Assistant Professor of Operations Management & Quantitative Methods, to begin employment in August 2010. The successful candidate for this position will have a Ph.D. or D.B.A. in Operations Management, Management Science, or a closely related discipline in hand by 8/1/10. The selected candidate should have university-level teaching experience, and must be prepared to teach courses in operations management, management science, and related fields, at both the graduate and undergraduate levels. The successful candidate should also have a demonstrated interest in furthering the development of these fields through research and publication. Evidence supporting high quality teaching and the ability to produce quality research must be provided. Business experience is desirable and a well-developed international perspective is preferred. UNF is AACSB accredited.

Interested applicants must fill out the online application at <http://www.unfjobs.org>. Applicants who do not apply online or do not upload all the required documentation will not be considered for this position. Applicants will receive a confirmation number after completing the on-line application process. Please keep this confirmation number, which means that the application online was processed through the system. The confirmation number does not mean that the application is complete. The application is not complete until UNF receives all of the required documentation. Finalists for the position will be required to submit an official transcript and three professional letters of recommendation.

Questions should be addressed to Dr. Dag Naslund, University of North Florida, Department of Management, 1 UNF Drive, Jacksonville, FL 32224-2645.

The University of North Florida is a member of the State University System of Florida. It now enrolls approximately 17,000 students in business, education, arts and sciences, engineering, and health. It is located in Jacksonville, Florida on a beautiful 1,100-acre campus located approximately halfway between downtown Jacksonville and Jacksonville Beach. The Coggin College of Business is expecting rapid growth. The College has been AACSB-accredited for more than 25 years.